

Tracy Lampman

Owner/Director
Instructor & Choreographer

Tracy Lampman has been in the dance industry for over 40 years, and has grown up in the competitive dance world as a dancer, teacher, and choreographer. She has extensive training in Jazz, Tap, Ballet, Modern and Lyrical and has studied with the finest teachers and institutions in Canada and the USA.

During that time Tracy became a certified dance teacher with the Canadian Dance Masters of America, Chapter 38 and The British Association of Teachers of Dance and has completed all her Ballet exams finishing with her Advanced 1 exam with the Royal Academy of Dance. Tracy has also completed online training with the National Academy of Dance Education and is a member of Dance Ontario. Tracy continued her dance education by completing the Professional Adjudicators Alliance program and is now working on obtaining her Progressive Ballet Technique certification levels.

Tracy has taught all ages of recreational and competitive dancers across Ontario and has won numerous awards and titles across Canada and the United States for her dancing and her choreography. Some of the outstanding awards include Top Studio Awards, Studio Spirit Awards, Top Marks of the Competition Awards, Top Discipline Awards, Choreography Awards, Costume Awards, Dance Off Champion Awards as well as many Overall Winner Awards, just to name a few of Tracy's teaching and choreography accomplishments. Tracy had one of her students represent Dancesations and Canada, on the official Team Canada Show Dance Team that competed in Poland.

Some of Tracy's students have gone on to have professional careers in the dance industry. Her most recent student was cast the one of lead roles as "Michelle" in the production My Mulan. Other students have gone on to teach at award winning studios and others have taken the big step and opened their own studios. Blake McGrath from "So You Think You Can Dance" and Tina Pereira, Principal Dancer with the National Ballet of Canada began their dance training with Tracy.

Tracy graduated from Cawthra Park School of the Arts majoring in Dance and from there went on to be a Dancer with the Mississauga City Dance Company and Canada's Wonderland.

Tracy has a passion for dance, a love for children and enjoys teaching this wonderful art form.

At Dancesations Dance Academy we strive to provide quality dance education in a caring and structured environment.

