

Maddison Fletcher

Competitive &
Recreational Instructor &
Choreographer

Maddison has danced competitively for over 10 years beginning her training at Stars on Stage Dance and Performing Arts where she found her passion. Maddison has trained in Hip Hop, Jazz, Lyrical, Contemporary, Musical Theatre, Tap and Ballet (RAD) bringing home many overalls and special awards with her solos and group performances.

Throughout her years of competing, Maddison has attended many workshops both local and international including when she traveled to New York learning from professional dancers and choreographers.

Throughout Maddison's dance journey she performed at Walt Disney World in the summer of 2018. She participated in Dance the World performing in a parade through Magic Kingdom and at the World ShowPlace in Epcot. Maddison has also performed locally with Hamilton Academy of Performing Arts in their annual performance of the Nutcracker in many different roles.

Maddison was accepted to take part in an International Dance Mentorship program run by Reet Roy training from professional dancers all around the world in many different styles of hip hop.

Most recently Maddison has graduated with a BA for Dramatic Arts and a Minor in Business at Brock University. There she continued her dance training with Brock Dance as well as shared her passion with other students through teaching regular classes and workshops.

At the age of 15 Maddison started helping with dance classes at all levels and styles until she began teaching at the age of 18. Maddison absolutely loves sharing her passion for dance and watching her students grow and learn.
